Previous HRG Weekly Seminars: Lent 2011

Venue: McDonald Institute Seminar Room, Downing Site, Thursdays 1—2:30pm (unless otherwise stated)

20 January: Masaaki Okada (Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, Kinki University) "Japanese and European Defence Heritage: Its Reuse and Potential"

27 January: Britt Baillie (Department of Architecture, University of Cambridge) "Dangerous Spaces and Terrible Places: Remaking Vukovar’s Heritagescape"

3 February: Dominic Walker (Department of Archaeology, University of Cambridge) "The Local and the Universal: Community Involvement in the Management of the Blaenavon Industrial Landscape World Heritage Site"

10 February: Saruhan Mosler (Writtle School of Design) "A Landscape Architect’s Perspective: Acknowledging the Past Today with the Examples of Archaeological Landscapes from West Turkey"

17 February: Sam Walls (Department of Archaeology, University of Exeter) "A Landscape of Memory: Commemorating Disaster and Hardship"

24 February: Ian McNiven (School of Geography and Environmental Science, Monash University) "The Ancestral Present: Managing a Sacred Islet Using Scientific and Indigenous Knowledge in Torres Strait"

3 March: Uilleam Blacker (Department of Slavonic Studies, University of Cambridge) "Memory at War: Heritage Sites and Memory Conflicts in Eastern Europe"

10 March: Brigid Ward (Department of History, University of Cambridge) "Civic Identity, Memory and the Urban Landscape in Portsmouth Since the Blitz"

17 March: Chiara De Cesari (Department of Archaeology, University of Cambridge) "A Heritage by NGOs: The Politics of the Past in Palestine"