

Previous HRG Weekly Seminars: Easter 2011

Venue: McDonald Institute Seminar Room, Downing Site, Thursdays 1—2:30pm (unless otherwise stated)

28 April: Tatiana Vakhitova (PhD Candidate, Department of Engineering, University of Cambridge)

"Identifying intangibles: Safeguarding our built cultural heritage"

Note: this seminar will be held in the West Building Seminar Room

5 May: Prof. Ian Lilley (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies, University of Queensland)

"Putting their money where our mouths are (or how global mining companies will save the world's cultural heritage)"

12 May: Michal Murawski (PhD Candidate, Department of Anthropology, University of Cambridge)

"From resistance to heritage: 'Cosmopolitan deviations' from socialist realist architecture and the making of 21st century Warsaw"

19 May: Prof. Claudia Theune (Institute for Prehistory and Early History, University of Vienna)

"Archaeology and remembrance: Archaeology research at former concentration camps"

26 May: Dr. Gilly Carr (Institute of Continuing Education, University of Cambridge); Dr. Paola Filippucci (Department of Anthropology, University of Cambridge); Wayne Cocroft (English Heritage); Dr. Philip Stone (University of Central Lancashire)

"Dark Heritage and Identity Panel Discussion"